9.10.2007. Present: Mr.Baldev Singh, Advocate for the Appellant.

RFA.No.282/2007.
CMP(M).No.744/2007.

There is delay in filing the appeal by 2421 days. The reason for filing the appeal against the impugned judgment and decree dated 3rd August, 2000, as mentioned in the application , is that the counsel never advised the appellant to file the appeal and when nothing could be recovered from the Judgment Debtor in an execution petition filed by the appellant-Decree holder she has now been advised to file the present appeal.

In my view, this would not constitute a sufficient ground to condone the delay in filing the appeal. The application and appeal are consequently dismissed.
